THE COURSES

(Your team will play four of these courses on the trip, depending on your chosen itinerary)

The Ocean Course at Peninsula Papagayo \(above\)

6,788, Par 72 ocean view Arnold Palmer course. Ranked "Best 100 Courses Outside the United States" by Golf Digest. Top 20 most scenic golf courses in the world according to Travel and Leisure. Nearly every hole offers breathtaking views of the Pacific Ocean.

Reserva Conchal Golf Course

7,021 yard, par 71 championship course designed by Robert Trent Jones II. Offering 18 distinct holes in the middle of a tropical paradise. Challenging holes, well-kept greens. Lookout for wildlife including Howler Monkeys, iguanas, many birds, and even crocodiles.

Hacienda Pinilla Golf Club

7,300-yard, par 72 masterpiece designed by Mike Young. The course blends marshes, woodlands, and seaside views to produce a demanding yet beautiful round of golf.

Valle Del Sol Golf Course

7,011 yards, par 72, 18 hole professional championship golf course designed by American Tracy May. Located in San José's exclusive Parque Valle del Sol residential area. Features wide undulating fairways surrounded by majestic trees and vast lakes that attract a diverse and vibrant wildlife.

La Iguana Golf Course

6,698 yard, par 72 championship holes designed by Ted Robinson. Located on the coast line of Puntarenas, the layout includes exotic native plants, banana trees, orchids, sloths, monkeys and more than 150 species of birds -- and iguanas that hang out at the putting green.

Cariari Country Club

6,590 yard, par 71 George Fazio course that plays longer than the yardage. Built by on a former coffee plantation, the course is heavily wooded with narrow fairways and large greens lean with sand traps throughout.
